PHYSICAL FITNESS AWARDS NOMINATIONS

The South Carolina Governor's Council on Physical Fitness will hold its 13th annual awards presentation during the USC versus University of Alabama, Birmingham game at halftime on Saturday, September 27, 2008 to honor outstanding leaders in the field of physical activity. The South Carolina Governor's Council on Physical Fitness aims to promote health by increasing levels of physical activity, and would like to commend those also committed to this important mission. Awards are presented in the following categories: individual, community, school, worksite, media, public policy, and faith-based for their efforts in advancing the levels of physical activity in the state of South Carolina.

■ The Community Award

recognizes an organization or group which encourages and promotes physical activity/healthy lifestyles in the community.

■ The School Award

is given to a school which encourages and promotes physical activity/healthy lifestyles among teachers, staff, and students.

■ The Worksite Award

recognizes a business which encourages and promotes employee physical activity/healthy lifestyles.

■ The Individual Award

is given to a person who exemplifies a physically active lifestyle.

■ The Faith-Based Award

is presented to a church, synagogue, mosque, or other religious organization or affiliated group which encourages and promotes physical activity/healthy lifestyles among members.

■ The Public Policy Award

is presented to a local, state, or national policy maker or group of policy makers who support physical activity/healthy lifestyles through changes in public policy.

■ The Media Award

is presented to a newspaper, television station, radio station, or to an individual reporter, for outstanding coverage of physical activity/healthy lifestyles.
